

NATIONAL 54 FOUNDERS AWARD
NOMINATION DEADLINE: JUNE 1

Award Criteria: This award, the League's highest honor, is given to an individual, group, or organization (member or non-member) judged to have made an outstanding contribution to the conservation of America's natural and renewable resources. Recipients of the award should have a distinguished history of conservation achievement in a wide arena over the course of time. Questions are listed below as a guide to the specific information the awards committee is looking for. One award may be given each year. Division approval is required.

Please type or print all information clearly. Please be certain the nominee's name is spelled correctly - the name and spelling given will be used on awards and plaques.
