

The Damascus Wildlife Rangers

These are the “Tentative” stages for Saturday, Nov 13, 2021.

This match will bring to a conclusion the 2021 Season for the Damascus Wildlife Rangers. Our next scheduled match will be on March 12, 2022, assuming that Old Man Winter has left the range in a usable condition.

I want to thank everyone who came out to support us this year and play Cowboy with us on the range. I look forward to seeing even more folks next year as we enter our 25th Season! Who'd have ever believed it!

As usual, these stages are subject to modifications due to worsening weather conditions or changes necessary to correct an error or safety problem. They are published, as a courtesy, to our match attendees. They are posted without the benefit of our regular posse leader walk through. Safety modifications can be made as late as the day of the shoot. The stages however, should remain close to what is published here.
