The sport of Cowboy Action Shooting (CAS) consists of shooting at targets, many of which are steel, with live all lead ammunition. For the safety of all participants and spectators, All Ammunition Used Must Be Loaded To Single Action Shooting Society (SASS) Specifications. If you are uncertain of your ammunition speed or type, please contact the match director.

Participation in this sport is done so with the knowledge that shooting firearms can be inherently dangerous and it is impossible to guarantee that occasional lead splatter will not enter the shooting and spectator area.

The Wildlife Achievement Chapter of the Izaak Walton League of America (IWLA-WAC) will take every precaution to make this activity as safe as possible. However, we cannot and will not be held responsible for personal injuries, damage to vehicles, equipment, firearms or clothing of participants or spectators. All participants and observers must wear hearing and eye protection during the match.

Unsafe behavior, improper use of firearms, failure to obey instructions, use of alcohol or drugs (illegal or performance hampering prescription), or failure to respond to any safety command will result in immediate disqualification from the match. At the discretion of the Match Director, the participant may be escorted off the IWLA-WAC grounds for a violation of any of the above. The Match Director will make the final determination on any of the above mentioned violations and the Match Director’s rulings are deemed to be final.

Signing this registration form indicates that you agree to abide by the conditions stated above during this match as well as any subsequent CAS events held at IWLA-WAC and, further, that you hereby knowingly forfeit any right you might have, individual or otherwise (including the acts of third parties), to hold IWLA-WAC, its Officers, Directors, Workers and Event Personnel or S.A.S.S. liable for any injuries or damage sustained while participating in CAS events on IWLA-WAC grounds regardless of their cause or nature. Signature is required, no printing, digital or typed signatures will be accepted.
