We will have a homemade country lunch including homemade apple pie. Coffee and pastry at 8:00 a.m. starts the day. Enjoy the fresh air and help the Chapter.

The next Range Orientation and Clean-up will be September 30 at 10:00 a.m. The Range Committee thanks Jim Brown, Reid Power and Bill Davis for their help at the last Clean-up.

DUE TO LOW ATTENDANCE at the last Bull Roasts and Chicken-corn Barbeques, consideration is being given to discontinuing these events. Too much work by too few members to entertain and feed too few participants, along with too little profit, is proving very discouraging. Perhaps you have some suggestions; the Board would like to hear them.

IN PASSING, IT SHOULD BE NOTED that enough cooked but unused corn was salvaged and taken to the Rockville United Church, where a work party cut off and froze over 7 gallons of corn for future use in soup for the Zacchaeus Soup Kitchen.

IN THE ADOPT-a-ROAD PROGRAM, four teams of picker-uppers have signed up to monitor Mullinix Mill Road, a k a IKE PIKE. Team I will clean up in September.

THE NEXT FOUR NATIONAL CONVENTIONS will be: 1991, Rapid City, S. Dakota; 1992, Cincinnati 1993, Davenport, Iowa; 1994 HERE???
